ELIGIBILITY POLICY

Evergreen High School does a weekly eligibility grade check. Teachers will post weekly eligibility grades every Wednesday to check for failing grades. A list of students will be generated and distributed to coaches and the Athletic Director and an automated phone call and email will be sent home. Any student/athlete who is failing more than one class on the weekly report is ineligible for participation the following week, Monday through Saturday.

If a student/athlete is failing just one class on the weekly eligibility report, they have an opportunity to indicate that they have brought the grade up, by getting an eligibility form signed by the teacher and returned to the Athletic Director, before their next sports event. Students remain ineligible for the week following the eligibility report, Monday through Saturday, until they have turned in their eligibility form to the Athletic Director.

Ineligible student/athletes may go to practices and games; however, they may not miss any class time to attend games and may not dress in uniform for games until they have regained eligibility.

I have read and understand the Eligibility Policy of EHS.
